

pH Quintessence

Alkaline and Detoxification Support*

DESCRIPTION: pH Quintessence is more than a greens supplement, it's a highly concentrated 40:1 alfalfa formula designed to support pH balance, natural detoxification, and overall vitality.*

Sourced from a specially selected variety of alfalfa (Medicago sativa), grown in pristine, Non-GMO fields in France, pH Quintessence undergoes a proprietary process that concentrates its active nutrients. Instead of the usual 9-18 tablets required per day for greens, the daily dose of three capsules provides the benefits of two servings of greens, delivering chlorophyll, antioxidants, essential amino acids and beta-carotene (a natural vitamin A precursor) in a clean, convenient form.*

This process also reduces grass allergens and phytoestrogens normally found in alfalfa supplements, making pH Quintessence a gentle yet effective choice for daily nutritional support. Unlike traditional greens powders, it requires no mixing or preparation. Encased in oxygen-barrier blister packs, ensuring consistent quality and effectiveness.*

For those looking to balance the effects of an acid producing diet, support hormone metabolism, or enhance overall wellness, pH Quintessence provides targeted, easy-to-use support.*

Why Choose pH Quintessence?

Unique Benefits:

- ✓ Supports healthy pH balance and alkalinity, especially for those who consume acid producing foods like coffee, alcohol, sugar and meat.*
- ✓ Aids hormone clearance in the liver, promoting overall hormonal balance when used in conjunction with Femmenessence or Revolution Macalilibrium.*
- ✓ Supports natural detoxification and metabolism.*

Talking Points for Your Customers

- "pH Quintessence is an easy, convenient way to get concentrated greens daily, perfect for those who don't love green juices or salads."
- "It supports your body's natural pH balance and general detoxification, promoting overall wellness and hormone metabolism."
- "With its potent 40:1 concentration, it delivers the benefits of nutrient-rich greens in just three capsules."
- "If you regularly enjoy coffee, alcohol, or sugar, pH Quintessence is the perfect way to help your body maintain balance and stay healthy."
